Petition Comments

Brian Anderson

“Cutting military bands is the wrong way to go”

Jesse Chavez

“The bands have a long been a distinguished part of our military forces. They are as important as any other unit.”

Derek Clark

“Reason for Signing: Heritage”

Pat Colbert

“What a loss we would have. Please sign.”

Wendy Cripe

“Patriotism comes in many forms. God Bless the music in us all.”

Jennifer Ellis

“We support every military link to our community!”

Cyndy Epps

“My husband served in the Navy for 22 years, and we have now been a part of the Augusta/Fort Gordon community for over twenty years. The Signal Corps Band serves not only for the morale of the military community, but also as a reminder to the civilian community of the sacrifices being made around the world for our freedom. The presence of the band links both military and civilian communities as they come together to enjoy the timeless traditions of a military band. with so much divisiveness in our country today, this serves a peaceful, nostalgic reminder of patriotism in our land that can bring us all together as Americans.”

Eileen Faucette-Robinson

“The Army’s plan to deactivate the band is so sad! Bands & other pomp & circumstance options are great for recruitment! Plus, they help communities feel connected to- and supportive of- their bases. Please, keep the band alive!”

Rob Faulkner

“For so many decades they have brought excitement to an otherwise dull existence.”

Jessica Gaulty

“The Arts are important! I love to hear the band play.”

Stuart Gray

“It’s important to the community to have these bands available. ”

Christopher Hardy

“I served in this band from 1983-1988. Let's keep 'em going.”

Jessica Harris

“Being from a military family, I have always enjoyed and appreciated the Signal Corp Band. I believe it is an important part of our community. ”

Garalynn Hauser

“As an Army retiree, I can attest that pride is a core element to this branch of service. The band members can be proud of their skills, their contributions to the community, of providing R&R, so important to keeping a well-rounded fighting force and learning environment for young soldiers, and because a war environment does not flourish well when the Arts are flourishing.”

Jeff Hickman

“Music brings people together, unites them, motivates them, consoles them. Military bands bring humanity and ceremony to any event they perform at. Military bands foster reverence and support for the armed forces.”

Shelia Hilson-Rogers

“The wonderful U.S. Army Signal Corps Band has provided us in the CSRA with fabulous entertainment! Over the course of about three decades, my family has watched them flawlessly perform at celebrations (think Fourth of July with cannons and fireworks), parades, special events at Ft. Gordon, funerals, etc. They are a treasure in the CSRA and I would hate to see them leave. They are an institution and a jewel in this area.”

James Howell

“I remember seeing this great group of musicians perform at countless functions when I was growing up in the Augusta area. Always enjoyed the fantastic display of unity and musical ability.”

Colleen Hurley

“Armed Services Bands are wonderful!”

Leslie Lehmer

“I stand with the Army Band at Fort Gordon and all military musicians everywhere.”

John Line

“Tradition is important, art is important, support of our Military and surrounding communities is important. As a society we are slowly killing our own culture and Military Bands are a part of that culture. The Army Band field is as old as the infantry itself. The removal continuous removal of Army Bands is the continuous removal of our living heritage.”

Ann Lucier

“The band is such an integral part of the community and enjoyed by so many.”

Robert Lucier

“I'm signing this petition in support of the Signal Corps Band, it would be a shame to discontinue the band that has played for so many.”

Laura Lynn

“Listening to a band play during holidays such as memorial day Fourth of July Labor Day as well as other functions that are part of our American history promote and provide more than just entertainment. The music they play provides optimal learning experiences for a variety of people as well as giving parents, grandparents or caregivers teachable moments Regarding music, culture, history and importance of respecting those who serve and protect our country. ”

Joyce Lynn

“The band is an integral part of community life in the CSRA. They need to stay.”

Meghan McGarry

“Our military personnel should have our support at all levels.”

Robert McQuinn, Jr.

“The Signal Corp Band is a part of this community and needs to be here. They have a mission just as the rest of the soldiers at Ft. Gordon do. Cutting the band would not be a good decision with a post growing like Ft. Gordon is. The band is an integral part of the community relations and should stay to continue that mission.”

Neita Mulherin

“They have been a part of the Augusta area for many years, and are needed more than ever.”

Cornelia Netherton

“I am proud of our military and their involvement in our community.”

Krupskaya Orlandella

“I love the band and our community needs music.”

Joan Paccione

“I believe in our military and the honor for their service. God Bless.”

Connie Read

“Reason for Signing: It's the right thing to do!”

Thomas Sanford

“I’m signing because I’m a retired Army bands 1SG with 23 years of service as a military musician. Military music has a long and distinguished history. Closing the band at Ft. Gordon is a continuing attempt to erase an essential part of military tradition. My tour in Vietnam showed me how important the military musician’s mission is when we played Christmas carols on Christmas Day at a fire support base called Hawk Hill, in I corps.

As we prepared to leave, the Commander said, with tears in his eyes, that our visit meant so much to him and his men. We shook many hands and hugged many teary eyed men. I know how much our mission meant to these men. To take away such a vital source of morale to our troops is, in my view, a travesty. We provide a unique avenue for uplifting our troops during the worst of times. Not just idle rhetoric. I've seen the effect we can have on morale with my own eyes, on many occasions. Bolstering morale is indeed a very important part of taking care of the troops. MY PEOPLE! As a 1SG, taking care of your troops is the most important part of your mission."

Deborah Scharf

"I am a retired US Army soldier/musician. In my combined twenty five years on reserve and active duty I experienced, personally, how important US Army bands are to their local civilian and military communities. Augusta and Fort Gordon should not lose their band."

Vickie Schwab

"I am signing because the community closeness will be lost if the Army band is moved"

Lonnie Sevier

"The D.O.D. wastes Billions of dollars every year and is considering eliminating the Twelve member Signal Corps band that has already been reduced by 75 per cent to save money. Think about that."

Theresa Stafford

"I love the band"

Brenda Stephens

"I've had the pleasure of seeing them perform. It's an experience you do not want to miss! That will happen if you don't fight to save them. Don't ignore this, sign the petition now. Do not put it off. Signing now will help more than you know."

Robin Stephens

"The traditions of Military Bands MUST be preserved!!!!"

Alan Toon

"I am tired of the Army closing down bands which are such an important bridge between the Army and the community."

Debra van Tuyl

"I can't imagine a command as large as Fort Gordon without a band."

David Watts

“Bands are important.”

Amanda Waymer

“Arts are important to our community and our veterans ”

Petition Signatures
